

Deaconess Phyllis Jean Pittman-Lee

April 21, 1954 - April 24, 2026

Phyllis Jean Pittman-Lee was born on April 21, 1954, in Dunn, North Carolina, to Dorothy and James Stewart. She was the first of ten children and the beloved oldest sister. She was a devoted mother to three children Kisha Williams Avery Lee and Tehquin Lee a son in law Darrian Williams and a daughter in law Shatiffanie Lee, a proud grandmother of eight, and a loving great-grandmother to three.

Phyllis graduated from high school and continued her education at the Atlanta Art Institute in Atlanta, Georgia. After completing her studies, she began her professional career with Ogilvy and Mather, a well-known marketing and advertising company, where she applied her creativity and talent.

She later met and married Chris Lee. As a military wife, Phyllis embraced a life of travel and adventure, living in Germany for four years with her family. During that time, she explored different cultures and ways of life, experiences that broadened her perspective and enriched her spirit.

Phyllis was also a proud member of the Eastern Star. She was a God-fearing, virtuous woman who embodied compassion, strength, and grace. Known for her loving nature and no-nonsense attitude, she was someone who spoke her truth while uplifting those around her.

Throughout her life, Phyllis received numerous awards recognizing her outstanding leadership and achievements. She had a remarkable eye for fashion, carrying a unique style that was entirely her own. Her talent extended into decorating, where her creativity and attention to detail made her truly unmatched.

Phyllis was the definition of a professional—honest, driven, and a true perfectionist. Whether in her work or personal life, she always went above and beyond, leaving a lasting impression on everyone she encountered.

She will always remain in our hearts, our minds, and our spirits. We love you forever.

Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, 4347 Flat Shoals Parkway, Decatur, Georgia 30034.
