“...but I knew that smile and said that’s my baby boy.” We all wish for more time. I wish to have known you better as a man. There is still time to know you more from the family we still have left to share. I posted both these pics from 2017 because you liked one & I the other. Love and miss you dad. Your baby boy, Stephen.

“ My beloved brother my friend and confidant. God saw fit to call you home. No more pain and sorrow I will miss you, your conversations, your laughter our fishing trips together and reminiscing about the good old days and those jokes you were our Richard Pryor. Mother and Father are waiting for you with open arms. You are not alone. We will always love you rest in peace.

“ To the family of Mr. Pilgrim Black, Jr., my thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time. Praying for strength and peace for you all. Even though I've only known Mr. Black (Uncle Junior) for a short period of time, I remember him as a very pleasant, wise, and very well-respected man with a lot of pride. He was a good man who will truly be missed.
