“ Ma always treated me as one of her daughters. After I lost my mom, she would call me to comfort me on those special days. Ma was a classy sassy lady and I will miss her dearly, but I'm glad she is no longer in pain. She is now with her siblings and my mom and I have two Angels looking over me. Rest in Heaven Ma!

“ Knowing Mother Jones for the last about 2 years has been an absolute pleasure and Blessing. Her warmth and candidness brought joy and peace. As a new person in the neighborhood She and Charlotte made me feel more than welcome. My Husband and I enjoyed worshipping with them. I enjoyed visiting with them. Please remember that all things are done in Gods time. “In God’s time, the winter turns to spring; In God’s time, He deals with everything; In God’s time small things, they turn to gold; In God’s time, He always heals the soul. Love. The Turnipseeds.”

“ My legend of a Auntie was a sweet, kind hearted soul. God blessed her with 95 years of life and she remained sharp in mind until she took her last breath. She was a fashionista and a diva when it came to dressing and accessorizing an outfit. I still remember her last smile at me and gentle wave of her hand. I love you Auntie and know that you are all healed up and at peace with your siblings in God's big house in heaven. See you precious in the by and by, your niece, Lorraine of Baldwin, New York.
