“ It was the year 1987 Princess and I with my family moved into a housing scheme Pitfour St. James. I knew her long before that, because she was the deputy mayor of St. James, but 1987 was when we introduce ourselves to each other. I migrated to Bronx N Y, and sometime after I was told that Princess is Queens N Y. I moved to Georgia, one evening I was at work , when I saw this person, I take a good look at her, and say to myself two people can not look alike so. I walked over to her, and say to her your back is in my back that is to say my back yard is in her back yard, there we embraced each other and exchanged phone numbers. I remember calling her to tell her that I am going to put up a fence between our back yard. I visited Belvedere church, and there we have seen each other. My last time seeing her, was August 21st at Belvedere church NCU day. We may say she is gone too soon, and that might be true. To the family of Princess the next voice she will hear is that of Jesus saying welcome, so I encourage you keep faithful, soon we shall hear that welcoming voice from the lips of Jesus, then we will all be able to live again with Princess throughout eternity.

“ Princess and I were co-workers for many years at Sunrise when she was a Caremanager and when she was promoted to being the Assisted Living Coordinator and I was the Reminiscence Coordinator. She was always a woman of excellence in her dealings with the Residents and the staff. After we both left Sunrise, I had only seen her once or twice and we would talk and reminisce. May God comfort you and give you strength as you try to live the rest of your life with a void that I can only imagine.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I encourage you all to keep in mind: God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. (1 John 4:9). Jesus stated: I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 26:19)
