“ Mama, I love you! The kids and I, will always cherish all the good memories we were able to share and create with you. I'll never forget when I was introduced to you. I still laugh till this day. You said baby, you were lil thin I have always laughed at that and I will miss you. You always know that I will always Love You! Or how Aunt Von was trying to make you drive fast to take me to the hospital to have Rayshaun! you would not speed even though you had your hazard lights on I'm definitely going to miss you 🕊️💛💛💛 we've had some good laughs thank you for always loving me...

Some bonds are simply meant to be. What began as a nurse caring for her patient became something so much more. In the middle of conversation, sharing where we were from and who we were related to — we discovered we were family. She shared stories of how she, my mom, and my aunt were childhood playmates while visiting cousins, and in that moment our connection felt beautifully full circle.

From that day forward, we formed a special bond...not just as cousins, but as friends. I am so grateful God allowed our paths to cross in such an unexpected and meaningful way. She was sweet, kind, and deeply spiritual, with a gentle presence that made you feel seen and loved.

I will always cherish the blessing of knowing her beyond the hospital room, beyond the surprise of discovery as family.

You will be deeply missed, my beautiful cousin and friend. 🍷

“ Prine,
You're not only my sister, but my last sister of three. I will miss you terribly!
I can never for get the days of our childhood; lying in bed harmonizing singing oldies but goodies. As we reached adulthood you followed me everywhere I performed. Always right up front cheering me on! Turning around to the audience saying, "That's my sister!"
Being present at my graduation. Shopping, exchanging cloths, recipes, handbags, etc. Going from one antique shop to another, and of course family reunions.
We both loved period movies; As well as old black and white movies from the 30's and 40's.
So yes my sweet, from the time I came into the world, you were my big sister who always seemed bigger than life! I love you now and I will always love you! RIP my Queen!💋

“ Our mothers were very, very close. So as children and into our teens, Princestine and I spent much time together exploring and having fun, in Athens, Atlanta, and Montclair, N. J.
I thank God for my beautiful cousin and the many fond memories.
She will certainly be missed.

In the Hardest Things We Do, Love Will See You Through....

Sending prayers and love to the Johnson/Lawson families as they celebrate and recognize the achievements of Princestina "Tina" Lawson. Her smile, her laughter, her cooking and her sharing of practical advice and wisdom will surely be missed. She continued to play a part in the Proctor family with both Rick and Beth connecting with her regularly via phone and I popping in for a hello and conversation. A true matriarch who continued to manage relationships near and far with the reminder of "don't let no one steal your joy!!"

She cultivated a sustainable legacy of giving through her church, community and family providing continued care and open arms for those in need. Her life reflected the qualities and dedication of a true servant. She now rests peacefully in the bosom of an even greater love, that of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Love always!
