

Priscilla Irene Martin

May 12, 1965 - September 5, 2021

Priscilla Irene Martin passed in peace on September 5, 2021 at the age of 56 in Covington, GA.

Priscilla lived a life full of positive energy, and a sincere heart for everyone she met. She was born on May 12, 1965 in Richmond, Virginia to Alphonso Smith Sr. and Gladys Smith. She served diligently beside her husband, Pastor Jeffrey Martin, as First Lady of Kingdom Covenant Church in Conyers, GA.

She enjoyed fashion in all forms, and found happiness in seeing the positive impact that she was able to make in the lives of all women. Priscilla was C.E.O. of Blessed Vibes Boutique, where she utilized her skills to create custom hairpieces to build confidence in women. She dedicated a lot of her time as a mother and grandmother, ensuring her children and grandchildren were always near her. She set out to accomplish everything that she wanted to do, including earning her Associates Degree in Early Childhood Education in 2019.

Priscilla Martin was preceded in death by her daughter, Eboni Martin. Priscilla is survived by her husband of 36 years, Jeffrey Martin, 3 children (Quanisha, Takishia, and Jeffery), grandchildren (Jaylen, Jordan, Brooklynn, Brandon Jr., Madilynn, and Adilynn), siblings (Alphonso "Poncho", Belinda, Veronica, Georgia, Swanzetta, Monique), and a host of relatives and friends.

“ My memories go way back... both our daddies were ministers at Garden of Prayer & we were the same age. Besides my cousins, I spent more time in the Smith's house and with Binky than anyone else. My memories are just distant clips now of two little girls playing with dolls, getting under tables, eating cake batter and just plain being happy together. We grew apart after my family moved to NC but those childhood roots are still strong! I have no doubt Binky raised a beautiful family of her own and touched many lives. I look forward to streaming the memorial service & hearing about the impact she made. Remembering my sweet friend Always, --Tracey

“ Rest in peace Priscilla. I've known Priscilla from the day she was born..I will remember her as a devoted daughter, sister, wife. and grandmother. She loved the Lord. She was raised up in church from birth. Every one that knew her know that she loved her family. Her grandchildren were her heart. I have so many wonderful memories of her. She will be missed.

“ To Jeff and family, may God sustain you through your time of bereavement. Priscilla will always be with you in your heart and in your memories. You are in my prayers and in my thoughts. May the strength of God keep you standing during this time. Priscilla was a wonderful young lady. I remember The first song I ever heard her sing was “ God has always stood by my side“. My daughter and I still sing that song . I know Priscilla is resting in the arms of God.

“ Mrs. Martin was a beautiful young lady with a heart of gold, whom never met a stranger. I can remember when I first met Mrs. Martin, by way of her daughter Kisha. Mrs. Martin told me how much she liked my style & I returned the compliment telling her how much I loved her style as well & that I wanted to be like her as I aged. When she would go shopping she would chat with me about the items she found and always told me that I would like it. She also cared enough to share her lovely clothes with me that, I still haven't gotten rid of to this day. I'll never forget the day her granddaughter Madilynn was born, Mrs. Martin held my hand in the delivery room & said Teria here comes our baby as Mr. Martin shouted you got this Kisha! That was a magical moment in my life that I'll never forget. We had so many things in common but the most that stood out is that even our last names are the same. Our families bonded instantly as if we'd known each other for ever. There has never been a dull moment with The Martin families, Mr. & Mrs. Martin both inspired my husband and I relationship even more as they shared great advice with us. We're really going to miss Mrs. Martin & will never forget her infectious & loving voice, her beauty, smile & gracefulness. We love you all, our deepest sympathy and condolences are with Mr. Martin, Quanisha, Kisha, Jeffrey, all children & extended family and friends. Love always, Teria & The Martin family.

“ Well she was my sister in Christ then we felt like sisters for real over the years. She would call me ahead of time before coming to Richmond to let me know where to meet. So many family events/ church or friends. She would always get me there by saying girl Ruby you gotta come because I have something to tell you. Most of the time that would get me there she was always glad to see me most of the time she would end up drilling me about what was going on in my life or about past relationships etc.

The Last time we spoke I couldn't make it to see her so I said to myself let me probe her before she get me I said you have been coming to visit and traveling a lot taking lots of pictures with the same folks are you feeling ok you not leaving us soon or anything are you we had a good laugh and she said no just having fun and making memories then said I'm call you back. I would have to say that is what she did had fun and made alot of memories not to mention while serving and praising God. To the family when you start to feel overwhelmed with the feeling of loss over losing her remember to call on Jesus over and over until the feel subsides for the moment. Praise the Lord. I don't know where to start. I knew her parents before they got married. In fact I don't was a bridesmaid in her parent's beautiful wedding. Then shortly afterward they started their family. Priscilla was the second born. She was raised up in church. She has been in church all her life. She loved the Lord. Priscilla sanged in the choir throughout her youth and adult life. She had a beautiful voice also. I will always remember her as a devoted daughter, sister, wife , mother, grandmother and friend. Priscilla loved her family. Her husband, children, and grandchildren were her heart. Rest in peace. She will be missed. Praying for the Martin and Smith family. Love you all.

“ As I lay here typing I'm still in shock of your transition. You were and will always be my Sister from another Mista 😊 You were there for my sister when she needed you the most! You worked with my mom at Wendy's the memories..... I can go on and on. However, I know bible has taught me to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord! You have gained your wings, back with your baby now she can enjoy mommas cooking now. I love you Priscilla and you will forever hold a place in my heart. Job well Done thy Good and Faithful Servant!

“ I met Mrs. Martin back around 2001-02 when Quanisha was at Phoebus High School. I didn't know Eboni at first but I became her Guidance Counselor and Homebound teacher. While I have so many memories of Mrs. Martin, the greatest memory is how she loved her kids and her "Booboo", Mr. Martin. She was a living example of that VIRTUOUS WOMAN! She supported her children and exercised tough love when necessary. But her love always outshined the punishment!

When Eboni passed, it was hard on her...but she showed such grace through her pain. She and Mr. Martin continued to keep their family unit strong because they knew that Eboni had a new home in Glory. Every year on her birthday and anniversary of Eboni's homegoing, which is my birthday, Mrs. Martin and I would chat and make sure each other was OK. I longed for that exchange on August 28th. But I accept God's will as PERFECT!! I love you Mrs. Martin (I never called her Priscilla). Thank you for letting me remain a part of your family!

“ We were touch and go over 20+ years after Living Word. We reconnected, stayed in touch (not as much as we should have) but I got to see you and your family and spent a little time with you. We laughed and went down memory lane and I'm so grateful for that. My eyes will dry up when they're ready but until then, sleep well beautiful. I will miss you dearly.
