“God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress.” -Psalm 46:1. His Word promises...“The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out.” (John 5:28,29). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises!

“Although I didn't have the opportunity to know your loved one, my sincere condolences are with you. Your hearts must ache at the loss of him, but I hope that you will find comfort in these words from Acts 24:15: "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." {John 5:28, 29} Just as Jesus resurrected Lazarus, and he was with his family again, we can look forward to the future when we can be with our loved ones again. {www.jw.org} And there will be perfect health, for Isaiah 33:24 says: "And no resident will say: " I am sick." The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error." Please keep these promises close to your hearts when you think of your loved one.

“ My nephew has fallen asleep. I will miss his smile and the special way he said (Unk) or uncle to me. I love him but my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ loves him more than I could ever fathom.

The word of God says;

John 11:25-26;

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

John 14:1-4

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Bless The Lord!

Although, my heart is heavy and sad, earth has no sorrow that heaven can't heal.

Quan/Nephew. . . May your soul Rest In Peace! . . . Uncle "G"
