*You mean so much to me,
my first Georgia friend,

“ In 9th grade I had the crazy idea to try out for softball so I went by myself and thought I wouldn't make friends any time soon but boy was I wrong! This bright, rambunctious, beautiful soul came up to me a grabbed my arm and said imma stick with you! I'm Quiara and I said ok I'm Ta'Tra she said I'll call you Princess! From then on it was a forever friendship. I'll miss the random places we'd end up and the late nights we can't remember with a friend I could never forget! I'm hurt beyond words that we won't get more time in this lifetime but I know Gods plans are not ours. You are with my mom now and I'm glad you two have eachother. Your love( Brandon) and your babies will be well taken care of so you rest and I'll see you when I get there! Thank you for sharing your heart with us down here.

Love,
Princess 💔

“ Qui I really can't believe this is real. Apart of me wants to believe you're still in Atlanta but calling your phone and you not answering broke my heart. You trusted me as Zakhi godson and we both know how much I took that role personal and now I really have to step it up. Qui I'll forever live in gratefulness because you embodied living life fully and in gratefulness. I love you forever.
