“ My heart aches for your family. Literally. I am SO sorry for your loss. Though my only comfort is knowing that he's no longer troubled in this crazy world that we endure. God now has His son back home. I'm praying for your strength day by day. My GOD! Please lean on Him and only His understanding. My thought, prayers, heart and love are with you and your family.... 📄💔💔💔

“ I loved to hear him laugh and cut up with Ra'Mya and Tink. After rehearsal was done they would sit back and clown on everything that went down. He was always a perfect gentlemen, quick with a smile, and willing to step in and help wherever you needed it. The last time I saw him was for the concert fundraiser before they left for tour, and I'm glad to have that last memory of your gorgeous smile. Rest easy in heaven young man, and may the Lord watch over and keep your family until you meet again <3.

I remember Quinton from my Sunday school class and he was always active in the class! He had a sweet spirit and he showed leadership skills at an early age! It is my sincere prayers that the family will remember all the good characteristics Quinton possessed!

“ I will never forget about a man that taught me so much. Quinton and I were such good friends. I would sneak to his math class and get his homework he was super good in math. I enjoyed every moment, every laugh, Quinton used to yell my name from across anywhere. Quinton was my Bestfriend at one point in time. I'm so sorry that he was feeling undefeated because Quinton is unstoppable. I'll forever love and cherish him. Thank you god for allowing me to meet him, his beautiful mother ( I love you momma S ) his sweet sister 😞 his aunt ❤️ Thank you for opening a warm family upon me. I love you all ❤️ JG. Quinton we will meet again.
