

Quittis Johnson Taylor

November 27, 1925 - July 27, 2013

Quittis Johnson Taylor was born on November 27, 1925 to the late Mamie Hindsman Johnson and Asbury Johnson. She married Henry Taylor at an early age. She later enrolled at Dekalb Community College, took classes at Emory University, seeking a degree in Nursing as a career. She departed this life on July 27, 2013. Leaving all the loved ones to cherish her memories. Her survivors are: Crayton (Gwen), James (Carmel), William(Janell), Kenneth, Ray, Norris (Melissa), & Everett. Her Sisters Nell, Locie, & Juanita. There are a host of Grandchildren, Great-Grandchildren, Nieces, Nephew, & Friends who will always love & cherish Her.

Tribute Wall

AT

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God’s word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

Agnes Taylor - August 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SR

“ I want say thank you to Ms. Quittis Taylor, who let me call her Grandma and treated me like one of her own. I wasn't fortunate enough to know my own grandmothers, but I was fortunate enough to have one in her. She was an wonderful woman, kind, caring and loving. I will always remember her as the strong, independent, amazing, and funny lady, who let me call her Grandma. Thank you for blessing my life Grandma I will miss you always and keep you fondly in my heart.

Sharondia Rogers - August 01, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ Lit a candle in memory of Quittis Johnson Taylor

Sandra - July 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ I love you grandma I miss you

Sandra - July 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ As Isa 55:11 states that nothing will leave Jehovah's mouth and return to him without result. and Titus 1:2 states He cannot lie. Thank you so much my friend for your loving encouragement for my family at this time.

Sandra - July 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ My funny memory of my grandmother is when I was 5 and my sister was 8 she chased my uncles Everette and Norris around the house with a vacuum cleaner pipe because they were fighting on the kitchen table. Brothers will be brothers. My sister and I was sitting in the kitchen snacking on watermelon wedges and watching the action. She almost caught them but they got away it stopped them from fighting though because they were too busy trying to get away. Just something I wanted to share with my family.

Sandra - July 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ To the family, We would like to share with you a comforting PROMISE that is found in God's word the Bible at (John:5v28,29 please read) Here we find Jesus talking about a RESURRECTION hope for all those in the memorial tombs! Truly encouraging to us & we hope that it brings peace & comfort to you. Please visit JW.org for additional encouragement.

Mr. & Mrs. Wright - July 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

BP

“ I'm sorry that your dear loved one fell asleep in death and I offer condolences to you all. God's Word assures us: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19). Keep in mind...God is faithful and ALWAYS keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5)

Beulah Parks - July 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ Thank brother and sister wright. I appreciate your loving kindness.
Sandra Taylor granddaughter to Quittis Taylor

Sandra Bryant - July 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ My beautiful grandmother is my hero, she was our strength. She raised 7 wonderful men that truly are awesome fathers, brothers and sons. My dad Crayton is my blessing through my wonderful grandmother. She taught me to type at age 5, taught me to sew, to cook, and how to think for myself. She was my idol, my best friend and someone I truly can say was my mentor. She always looked at the best things in life and didn't judge others on their decisions in life. She would listen tell you the truth of her opinion but she was always there for a listening ear and a shoulder to cry on. I will miss my beautiful grandmother but she will remain in my heart until I see her again in the promise of God's Kingdom.

Sandra Bryant - July 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

DT

“ My grandmother was a source of strength, and the foundation for which our family was held together. She gave us unconditional love and understanding. Never judging, but always giving you the truth... straight as an arrow and with love. She was full of life and never dulled by the trials of it. She loved us all and we knew it from every hug, kiss and smile. She was always there, supporting and encouraging us to do our best and be who we are. If not for her, I would not have become a nurse. I regret she will not see me follow in her foot steps. She was amazing and inspiring for the entire family, she will live on in our hearts and never fade. I miss you now and always, Grandma.

Daphne Taylor - July 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM