“ Thirty-five years ago, Ralph served as my best man. On that fall day in October, Ralph stood beside me as I opened a new life chapter as a married man. That day will always be etched in my memories because Ralph was there along with my mom, sister, sister-in-law, aunts, uncle and neice. Brother Ralph, you lived an extraordinary life and I will always remember the times we had together and the memories. Madelyn, Milaena and I will forever miss you.

It was always good to see Ralph and enjoyed his company even when he did not say much. Jesus loved him more and wanted Ralph home with him. Rest in his arms, Dance with the Angels. It is well “ Ralph, thank you for all the wonderful and happy moments we've shared between the phone and in person 😊. Sometimes I don't understand why God does certain things, but only he knows best. All I just can do is thank him now because you don't have to suffer any more. I love you!! And you truly will be missed.

“ Hey, Granddaddy! I love you to life and will miss you so much. One second I'm mad at god for not allowing you to stay with us and the next he speaks to me and says I know what you know not. I'm keeping as many pictures and material things like tools or anything else my grandma is going to let me have, lol. She not letting your writings go! By the way, I have your tool box with your writing on it thats in permanent marker. It symbolizes how organized you were and exemplified how a man should keep his focus. You wrote on everything and always made that desk the first stop to center yourself before you dealt with anything else outside of yourself.. May Allah be please with your life and I'm forever grateful I had Your physical and spiritual presents in my life!

“ Ralph was my oldest brother. One whom always made me laugh. 18 years my senior, he would play with me, pick me up so I would be as tall as him, and take out time with me whenever he came home from school or the military. I was his one and only baby sister. In recent times I looked forward to his Thursday calls sometimes every week, some times every other. He knew that was my off day. Our last two Thursday talks were mostly about covid 19 and the loss of so many lives that never should have happened. He was not happy about that. We had some choice words on the matter and as always he made me laugh to. I didn't know that would be the last time we would speak. Brother, I love you so much and will miss you more than words can say. Thank you for being the best in all you did. Best husband, father, grandfather, uncle and brother. RIP my dear brother. I love you.
