

Mr. Randolph Allen

June 13, 1983 - May 22, 2012

Funeral Services for Mr. Randolph Allen, Jr. will be held Tuesday, May 29, 2012, 11:00 AM in our South-DeKalb Chapel. Interment at Hillandale Memorial Gardens. Visitation Monday 9AM-9PM at Gregory B. Levett and Sons Funeral Home, 4347 Flat Shoals Pkwy, Decatur, GA., 30034. 404-241-5656. -----The tender spirit of Randolph Allen, Jr. or "Booga," as he was lovingly referred to by family and friends, arrived in this life on June 13, 1983 to the proud parents of Randolph Allen, Sr. (deceased) and Patricia Allen. A 2001 graduate of Redan High School in Stone Mountain, GA, Randolph's humor and love for life brought smiles to all he encountered and to those who knew him personally. He made you laugh and took pleasure in doing so, and his humor was contagious. Daughters, Alexis and Aniyah, were an incredible and important part of Randolph's life; where you saw him, you often saw them. The three of them were inseparable, and we pray that the girls will remember him as the father who loved them dearly. Randolph's talent for restoring cars was his pride and joy. There are many today cruising due to his artistic ability to bring life to a seasoned and retired automobile. He expressed this passion to his mother one day, stating that he found his niche; one of the best contributions in his life. Randolph leaves to cherish his memory two beautiful daughters Alexis Allen and Aniyah Allen, a loving mother Patricia Allen, and sister, Cattani Allen (Stone Mountain, GA), grandmother, Edith A. Daniels, nephew, Deodoric (DJ) Fleming, niece, Camiyah Fleming, aunts, Ivy Nunn and Emma (Leonard) Pope (Americus, GA), Billie Jo Allen (Decatur, GA), uncles, Eddie Allen Sr. (Atlanta) David Wayne Daniels (Rachel) (Americus GA), Rodney (Kristy) Daniels (Tifton, GA), David (Teresa) Daniels (Albany GA), devoted cousins Jon Christopher Allen and Kayissa Mullins, fianc , Chanda Alexander (Atlanta, GA). Randolph was welcomed into the heavens by his sister, Nikita Allen, and father, Randolph Allen, Sr., who preceded him in death.----In memory of Randolph Allen, Jr., the family asks that you please consider making a contribution to the Randolph Allen Memorial Fund, established to assist with the care of his two daughters. You may contribute to the memorial fund at any Wells-Fargo Bank by way of account #2197148428. We appreciate you!

“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear son, father and brother. May each of you find comfort in our heavenly Father who comforts those that are broken in heart and crushed in spirit, because will sustain you. (Psalms 55:22) Also too, our Creator has made the wonderful provision of the resurrection possible. (Acts 24:15) This will allow all those in the grave to come out and be reunited with their dear loved ones in Paradise. (Psalms 37:29) May you find comfort in knowing that whatever our Father promises he can and will do.

“ To the Allen Family: You have our deepest condolences. It is our prayer that this poem will bring strength and comfort to the family, especially Alexis and Aniyah Can you ever really prepare? For the lost of one so dear Your mind tells you he's gone Your heart sees him so clear Your mind remembers the circumstance That took Randolph away so soon Yet, your heart listens for his footsteps of him dancing to his favorite tune Our Father empathizes With your heart's strong desire To once again see your dear one Whom you both loved and admired Unlike well wishers, around you He can remove your pain By the promised resurrection Your joy you'll then regain To reestablish and make stronger The close bonds of perfect love As he is reunited with Alexis and Aniyah Being guided by our Father above Search His Word with an open mind Then believe and obey with all your heart Live by them, as Jesus says to God's blessings he will soon impart The Calloway Family

“ My prayers are with you Pat and the family during this time. Poem I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the day, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done Jo Tate & family
