“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family and friends of Randy Durden. I pray that Jehovah, the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort mentioned in his word the Bible at Phillipians 4:6,7.I know loosing a loved one in death is a tragedy, however we look forward to a joyful time in the near future when Gods Kingdom (mentioned at Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind. Under that Kingdom no resident will say I am sick. (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no death nor tears. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) Meditate on Gods word, and draw close to our Heavenly Father Jehovah in prayer during this difficult time. visit jw.org for more scriptural comfort on dealing with the loss of a loved one.

“ Randy was a highs school classmate of mine; Decatur High School Class of 1975. Randy had a great sense of humor. He would use it to make Mr Joyner and members of the class laugh. Last time I saw him was at a class reunion meeting in 2011! Shocked to hear of his untimely demise. Praying for his family.
