“ My dearest Randy, your gift of making all in your presence full of laughter will be sorely missed but never forgotten. We declare that all is well no matter what the naturL eye may see, we shall go and seek the Man of God that he may stretch His anointing over the dead places of our health He will breathe into us, and we will rise up to new life (2 kings4:8-37). I thank God we were able to sing your song, " I don't feel no ways tired" love always Aunt Florence ❤️

My Randy , you will never leave my heart. You were a wonderful son especially when your granfather passed on. You stepped right in and took care of the thing I needed done around the house and my car service. I don't know what I would have done without you son . I will always remember how you made me laugh and acting silly. I love you we will meet again. I celebrate your home going. RIP my loving son.
