“ Nothing can make up for the absence of someone we love. And it would be wrong to try to find a substitute. We must simply hold on and see it through. That sounds very hard at first, but at the same time, it is a great consolation, for the gap -- as long as it remains unfilled -- preserves the bond between us. It is nonsense to say that God fills the gap: God does not fill it, but on the contrary, keeps it empty, and so helps us to keep alive our former communion with each other, even at the cost of pain.

“ May God's loving provisions comfort and sustain you all now and in the difficult days ahead. The assurance that: The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out (John 5:28) gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones again. God cares! -John 3:16

“ My heart truly goes out to the family of Rashad. I pray that everyone stay strong and know that he is in a place better than earth, heaven! I've known Rashad since 4th grade at Kelley Lake Elementary. He was a very cool and funny guy. I had not seen him in so long and the last time I saw him was Memorial Day Weekend '09 at a cookout and I got the chance to see his 2 beautiful children for the first time. May his soul rest in peace. You ARE truly missed!!!

“ Even when walking through the dark valley of death I will not be afraid, for You are close beside me, guarding, guiding all the way. Psalm 23:4, My fondest memories are of Rashad as a cute little boy looking just like his dad, God is bringing you home to walk beside your father now. My prayers are with the family during their time of sorrow. God Bless
