“ Thanks be to God for my brother Ray Snell his calm gentle spirit will live in my heart forever. Although I can't attend your home going service Just know that I'm doing what Ray would want me to do. Taking care of my wife while she battles cancer. Do worry I have faith that I learned from you that our God meet his children at every hard crossing . I will continually pray for Sis. Gail and Josh

Snell and I served in Vietnam and at Ft. Campbell and Ft. Benning together. I have known this great man and soldier for 55 years. To me, this was unexpected. However, I know that he has earned his wings and a place in the heavenly kingdom. This post is from Carl Mckinney, Nazareth Baptist Church, Columbus, GA
