Becky was a great friend; she was like family. I will really miss her.

Becky Was Better

When it is all said and done, Becky was a better friend to us then most of us were to her. If you were in her Circle, in her world, she placed you in the center. It didn't matter what you needed or what you may have just wanted, if she had it, it was yours. Need a place to stay?. Done. Having car trouble?. Need a meal?. Need a place to hang, a swimming pool no less, with children and clients for the summer? - Done.

She was the better daughter and child, lovingly caring for her parents, being present in their day to day lives.

Motherhood - she was super mom. With her super cape she ensured Justin knew how capable he was, and is, and she didn't allow anyone or any obstacle to get in the way of that.

Bold, fierce, humorous, hilarious - beneath that tough exterior was the kindest, most dependable daughter, sister, niece, mom, employee and friend.

Everyone needs a Becky. This one is irreplaceable. This one was better.

Faithfully,

Michelle
