“ Dear White Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ A poem in memory of Becky

*Not how did she die, but how she lived
Not what did she gain, but all that she gave
Not what was her church, nor what was her creed
But how she befriended those who were in need
Not what did the words in the newspaper say, but how many were sorry when she passed away*

Rebecca, you will be truly missed and I thank God for the time we were able to share.

Rest in eternal peace and joy with the Lord.

*Love your sis-in-love,
Nikki*

“ I had the pleasure of being a colleague and friend of Becky's. We had many heart to heart conversations and would often call each other when a quick prayer was needed to get through a difficult day. I'm going to miss her ever positive and encouraging spirit. I'm going to miss my friend. Although her journey was challenging at times, she never wavered in her faith. The love for her family was enduring; she was proud of being a wife and mother.

My condolences to the White family during this difficult time. May He who knows your deepest sorrow bring peace, comfort and healing.

“ Raymond and Rajene, Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I had the pleasure of being Rebecca's immediate supervisor for the last several years. I will always remember her super-positive attitude and her willingness to help others. She was a very effective teacher and enjoyed taking the time to share her knowledge and help others achieve success. Her strength and trust in God during her illness was inspiring. She put her faith in God and we prayed for that miracle to be delivered. Even when it was apparent that a miracle was not in the cards for her, Rebecca's trust in the Lord did not waiver. I am sure that she is at peace with Jesus now. She will be missed.
