My deepest condolences. I will miss seeing Regina's smiling face at church. Scripture teaches us that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

“ I knew Regina to be a loving wife and devoted caregiver to her husband. She was one to see a need in the community and do her best to get involved and make a difference. I will cherish the memories I have of her. My deepest regret is not spending more time with her after her husband's death.
