Visitation Saturday April 1, 2017 9am-5pm

Reginald Hawes was born February 15th, 1942 in Chicago, Illinois. Raised among a grand and loving family, Reginald grew into a great man- serving in the United States Air force, devoting his life to At-Risk youth and climbing the ranks in the Michigan Department of Corrections. From an early age his love affair with books and music defined his passions and rooted him in the hearts of all who knew him. By sharing his knowledge, he impacted every community he inhabited. To know him was to connect with pride in self and in your heritage. Reginald's strength, speech and spirit garnered respect and love. His teachings transcend through his family – his siblings Ronald, Veronica, Sonya, Deborah, Rochelle, Sheila, Herbert Jr., Pamela and Wanda. Through his nephew Rodney, his children and their children Ajamu, Rabia, Jelani and Amina.

The Barkley family extends heart felt sympathy for our loss. I say our loss because he was lost by his friends who also loved him deeply. Know that he will continue to live and watch over you but this time from above in God's house....
