“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Renee Brown. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Renee give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.

“ I met Denise and her dad through my daughter (Shamiah Kerney). Thank you Denise for being an awesome friend to my daughter. As a mother who is miles and miles away from my only child, I had comfort in knowing she had a friend like you. I will always be grateful for everything you've ever done for Shamiah. You will truly be missed. Rest in peace.

To the family and friends, you all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I am deeply saddened by the news of Renee passing. I worked with her for a short period of time while I was at NCR. Renee would ALWAYS show me the bright side! When I approached her desk with my problems she would always have an answer & always listen to my venting.

To the bereaved family & friends please REMEMBER, death only comes to those who leaves no memories; for whose existence was cherrised, (like Renee's) they will always be alive in the chambers of the heart!

Sincere Sympathies

“ Renee was my boss and at AT&T for several years. She had souxh patience with me, and being that we both were NY'rs she understood my brutal honesty and explained it to thw reat of our team. I used to braid her hair for her all the time. I am so devastated by her loss and will do my best to attend her funeral. I My prayers go out ronher family and know that she is another angel i tjw aky watching over me! RIP Nay Nay!

“ I only remember meeting Denise on one occasion. It was a church mission trip to New Orleans to assist with rebuilding (Habitat for Humanity) after hurricane Katrina. I remember her smile and her gentle spirit. I remember meeting one of the families she helped. She was very caring and kind. If you got to know her on a more personal level; you are blessed and fortunate.
