“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of Minister Smith and can relate so much to the sorrow that the family is experiencing at this difficult time. My heartfelt sympathy to the family for peace, strength, and comfort today and in the challenging days ahead.

I was blessed to have had Henry as one of my participants at the Tobie Grant Recreation Center in the early 1970s and as a part-time employee in the mid-1970s. I feel his passing as a personal loss.

“ To the Smith family and friends. What fond memories we have of Dean Smith. Noone could say, "It's about to get Gooder," like he could. His love for teaching the Word of God was infectious. I sat under his teachings for many years while he was here in Michigan, serving at Word of Faith International Christian Center. I'm so grateful Dean Smith is in our FUTURE!!!
Love and prayers be yours.

“ Pastor Henry Smith was a great friend, softball coach and Great Teacher of God's Holy Word. Regardless of the situations in his life, he continued steadfast in God's word and helping people study God's Holy Word. I say as the Apostle Paul said "He fought a good fight." He is missed, but never will be forgotten.
