“ I have so many memories of Uncle Bobby, such as; Christmas at his house and Grandma's and other family members. I watch Uncle Bobby and his brothers grill on the 4th of July. Uncle Bobby wearing his nice church suits and being a black cowboy!! Uncle Bobby will be missed by wife, family and friends. I say a prayer for the family.

“ Family you have my condolences! Daddy Hughley was a quiet soft spoken guy but what said was also very profound! Everytime I heard you preach you had to sing "Bow Down" for me. Take your rest!

“ I have so many memories of Uncle Bobby such as;
Christmas at his house, Grilling on the 4th of July, wearing nice church suits while preaching, and singing, his laugh and his smile, sitting under the big tree at Grandma's house eating watermelon and being a black cowboy !!
Uncle Bobby will be miss.
Much love ,honor ,and respect.

My heart goes out to the family. Pastor Hughley was a very humble man. Had a big laugh and a big voice! I praise God for his service in the Kingdom. Well Done Sir, well done 🙏🙏

“ ALL salutations began with "alright, alright, alright." Uncle Bobby was a man's man and model of how a man should honor his wife and daughters. He was a gentle giant, and always there when you needed him. Rest in Peace Uncle Bobby and reunite with your parents, siblings, and friends until you start your next assignment as a "Guardian Angel."
