“ Matthew 5:16 says `Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.’

Rhonda’s light will continue to shine because of the impact she had on so many lives. She genuinely cared for people especially the sick. I observed the careful and loving attention she gave to her mother and to a mutual friend of ours, Claudette during their illness and often thought that’s the kind of person I’d want take care of me when I need it.

Her calm presence and quiet confidence filled the room.

I remember once on a prayer line for Claudette while she was on a mission’s trip Rhonda reminded me to pray that `the Lord will make the crooked path straight.’

Hopeton and family, while the path right now might appear crooked I pray that you will trust the Lord to make the path ahead straight for you.

My sincere condolences to you all. God bless you.

“ Rhonda was a beautiful, kind, loving and supportive friend. She was always the first to offer a helping hand and encouraging words. Rhonda lives on in the many lives she touched in such a positive way. To Rhonda's family - I pray that your memories of Rhonda's God filled and fun loving spirit, and the knowledge that she is at peace, bring you comfort in the days to come. Suzette
