“ I met Rhonda when we were employed at Empire Today. She always had a smile and a beautiful spirit. She always talked about her baby Aaron and when I met him I understood why, he had a beautiful spirit as well. Rhonda was always the classy stylish wonderful lady and I know she is now with the Lord and her baby boy Aaron. No more suffering no more pain. God bless Rhonda's family and my prayers for comfort during there time of grief.

Sending my deepest condolences to the Matthews Family. Rhonda will truly be missed. She was always such a sweet person with a big heart. I met Rhonda in 2007 when we worked at Empire Today. She was always dressed from head to toe with matching shoes and purse. We shared many laughs and everyone knew how much she loved her son Aaron. Although I was Rhonda's manager, she was a great friend to me and treated me like family. She had such a heart of gold and truly cared for people. I know she is somewhere in heaven with Aaron smiling.
