“ Ricky's Mom and my dad were first cousins. We are cousins who were raised more like sisters and brothers. My dad remained in the south and Ricky's mother migrated to Chicago. We were the country kids and our cousins in Chicago and Kansas City were City Kids. Tradition and love between our family brought the City cousins to us many summers. Ricky was very reserved until he figured out how he was going to present himself as the leader of games, spelling contests, running and playing with his cousins. The memories we created together during his visits and when we visited family in Chicago area will be remembered and cherished forever. To Ella and Oliver - you are in the circle of family Love and Hugs.
