The Story a Phenomenal Man

Richard N Kemper II

Richard Nathaniel Kemper II was born in Denver, Colorado on August 23, 1962 at 07:22am to the late Richard Nathaniel Kemper Sr. and Rosa Jane Kemper. Rick was always a boy of mischief alongside his brothers Roderick Charles Kemper, Randolph Miller Kemper, Reginald David Kemper and his sister Regina Kemper-Shelly. Rick was always energetic, often petite growing up but full of life and happy. When they were running from their father Richard SR, they were always together. Nothing could separate them.

Upon moving to Augusta, GA, Richard (Rick) met his wife Jeanne P. Walker. This woman became his best friend, wife, and mother of their beautiful children Richard N Kemper III, Jennifer Kemper Macklin, Jada Alexis Kemper. This became his life. This became what he would soon hold on to become his greatest achievement, his greatest strength, his greatest mission in life.

Upon Rick's life journey, he found his spirituality. Rick began doing yoga, meditating, visiting temples, monasteries, and churches. Through yoga, he stumbled upon the Bhagavad Gita. This began the basics of his spiritual fellowship, learning, and journey. He later found Paramahansa Yogananda (author of "Autobiography of a Yogi"). Rick deepened his spiritual quest for knowledge and began teaching others (whether they liked it or not). Rick became a spiritual vessel and always on the quest for GOD and knowledge. As of late, Ricks body began to wane. But his spirituality and wholesomeness was bigger than ever. He is the personification of a great father. Whether riding you to become the best you can be, throwing you into a situation where the only choice was to survive, making you live, teaching you to realize that there is no defeat but an opportunity to learn from your mistake and move forward to conquer that defeat. Rick was a warrior that expected no less from his children. Rick was also the slick trickster, one who could take the darkest moment and turn it into a smile and teachable moment. One could never remain in a sad state of mind around him as he would soon have you on the floor with tears of joy and laughter.

Rick is survived by his best friend, wife, confidant, partner, and spiritual companion Jeanne Kemper ; children Richard N Kemper III ((Trae – Terminator) Tonya), Jennifer Macklin ((Pocat)Chris), and Jada Alexis Kemper (Newt); grandchildren Riley and Matthew Kemper and Sophie and Christian Macklin; brothers Roderick Charles Kemper (Janet), Randolph Miller Kemper (Terrion), and Reginald David Kemper; sister Regina Kemper-Shelley (Suga); beautiful mother Rosa Jane Kemper, step mother Sandra J. Kemper, brother Dwayne E. and Derrick L. Turner and sister in law Andrea L. Muhammad.; beloved aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Most of all, we cannot forget James Blackman who became a dear friend and spiritual student with Rick. James took care of Rick in his darkest moments as of late. His bravery and selflessness will never be forgotten.

“ My name is Arthur Williams, I live in Aurora Colorado. I grew up with Richard we called him Ricky. Him and his three brothers and sister and my three brothers all grew up together in Denver on the same street. I have so many fond memories of Ricky those are the things that hold us together today. When his family moved to Augusta Georgia, I went to visit them and there our bond grew even stronger. Later, when he moved to Marietta and started his family, I went to visit them and introduced him to my wife and kids. Later, we joined them at the Kemper family reunion in Henderson Texas and we enjoyed our time with him and his family. Later, Ricky and his family came out to Loveland Colorado for the Williams family reunion and our friendship grew even more and continued to this day. I know it sounds like we were stalking each other but we were brothers. So with heavy hearts Ricky will be missed! This is a poem by Dr. Maya Angelo which I pass on to his mother and family: I am the hopes and the dreams of the slave and just like that there I go arising.

Rest In Peace Brother!

With heart felt sympathy, Love and prayers to Jeanne, Trae, Jennifer and Jada , the entire Kemper family. We loved Rick he was funny, kind, smart and loved his family. We met in 1989 through his wife Jeanne at work. Think of all the good times you all shared and words to help you grow into adulthood. You will never forget him, he'll always be on mind He will be missed. Family hold on be encourage, know that death is the gateway to eternal life. It's ok to cry this is a step to start healing. God will see you through.
