

Richard Minor

August 5, 1930 - July 1, 2024

Mr. Richard Minor was born on August 5, 1930, in Gwinnett County to the late Mr. and Mrs. Endie and Arthur Minor. He departed his life July 1, 2024. He was preceded in death by his (daughters), Audra Lee Herbert, Kecia Louise Minor and Felicia Endie Minor, (sons) William Oliver Minor, Lewis Minor, (grandsons) Richard Alonzo Minor Jr., Rayshad Richardo Minor, (brothers) Arthur Minor Jr., Melvin Minor, John Minor, Jerry Minor Sr., and (sister) Betty Minor.

In his late teenage years, Richard ventured up North to Mansfield, Ohio where he resided for several years of his life. He later returned to Atlanta, GA and started a career with the Department of Transportation Services. Richard was an honest and hardworking man. He later began a career as an entrepreneur in the driving industry as a dump truck driver and later owning his own business, Minor Construction.

Richard had many passions in life. He was a lightweight boxer, he loved listening and watching gospel at its best, but if you really knew Richard Minor, then you know he was a true gentleman with a classy style of dressing from head to toe as well as one of the biggest Atlanta Braves baseball fans in the world!

He leaves to cherish his memories (sons) Richard Alonzo Minor Sr., Richard

Minor Jr., Richardo Minor (Patrina), Renardo Saderricke Minor, 11 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren, 10 great great grandchildren, (2 sisters) Cora Minor and Myrtice Minor Crowley, (2 brothers) Bobby Minor and Michael 'Lewis' Minor. A host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, Avondale-Scottsdale Chapel, 351 N. Clarendon Avenue, Scottsdale, GA 30079.

“ I sent you a Braves basket for your 86th birthday and you loved it so much, meant a lot to me. You used to tell me you had steak and potatoes for dinner or about the family get togethers for you birthday. Your life inspires me to be happy and healthy as much as I can with less stress. The short time I've gotten to know you will last a lifetime!
