“ You were the best Father that anyone could every ask ,hope, dream and pray for. I miss you every moment of every day but I know that you lived your life as a true man and servant of God and that you are no longer suffering. Best of all while you are and will always be missed here on earth, I know you are still watching over me, Mom and all who you loved and cared about from above in God's Kingdom. I love you, Til We Meet Again, Dee Dee
