“ It was such a blessing to have Rick as we called him as a part of my family. Being a friend of his sister-in-law and claiming Jan as a big sister; I was a part of a package. The few times I visited the area; his home was open to me and anytime the family visited Pineville; we enjoyed being in Rick's presence - never a dull moment. He was witty, funny, compassionate and kind. He always entertained us and made us feel as home. Holidays at Ma's house will not be the same without this gentle giant. This was an unexpected shock that has broken our hearts but we take comfort and draw courage knowing that this Man of God will live eternally with the Father. See you in the morning.

To the family of Elder McIntyre: We are so sorry to hear of Rick's passing. It was quite shocking to us and our hearts are aching with sorrow. He was my (Donna) friend from first grade until now. Our parents were friends. We graduated high school together Walter M. Williams, as one of the first blacks to graduate. I last saw Richmond at my University Presidential Inauguration as I invited him to march in with the clergy as part of my inaugural procession. We had such fun as we had not seen each other for many years. My mother was so thrilled to see him. As usual he was such a gentleman. He will truly be missed but we rejoice knowing that he will live again. Our deepest condolences to his wife, children and the entire McIntyre Family. We are praying for each of you. God will see you through.
