“ Rick was a good friend of mine. I will miss our talks from sports to raising children. Most of all I'll miss his laughter and smile. Rick was such a fun person. Rest in peace my friend. I know you're making everyone laugh up there. You will always be missed and never ever forgotten. Your friend Jackie

“ I could recount many memories that I've had with my dad but what hurts most is that they will only be memories and that I won't be able to add any more. I will always be daddy's baby girl and will continue to make sure that I make him proud, no matter what. I love and miss you daddy, don't sleep just yet, you have a lot of protecting to do. Just like in life, always helping and protecting others, now your official :-) Rikki

“ It's still hard to believe that my father is gone. He has been so strong for so long that I never allowed myself to believe that we would ever be at this point. Everyday is a struggle and i know it will continue to be but all i can do is cherish the memories and lessons that my dad had taught me. Everything from singing at the top of our lungs to our MC HAMMER dance in the kitchen when i was in high school. I

“ Rick was a great brother who I will always love and miss dearly. We shared many great years together. My heart is so broken that he have left me. I will miss picking up the phone telling him my secrets, dreams, adventures and the day to day events of what is going on with the both of us.

I will keep a can of Budweiser in my fridge just for him. I will remember our family trip to New York City with Rick and his kids along with mines. It truly was a 13 hour adventure that should have been shown on live TV.

Rest in peace my dear brother.

“ To the family of Mr. Ricky Cooper, I know that your heart is heavy at this time, mine is also, because Ricky and I grew up together in the same neighborhood as children until we all went our separate ways after high school. Please remember "God will put no more on us than we can bear".
