“ Although I did not personally know your dear loved one, I wanted to take a moment to express my deepest sympathy to your family. No doubt the loss of such a dear loved one will be felt by many. Long ago the faithful man Job asked if an able bodied man died could he live again. The comforting answer is yes. Our God the creator yearns to bring back those who died. (Job 14:13-15) May this and the other promises recorded in God’ word the Bible continue to comfort you and your family at this time.

“ My sincere condolences to the family I am deeply sorry to learn of the loss of your loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) " is the "Hearer of Prayer" and a source of great comfort in times of grief (Psalms 65:2). His word the Bible assures us that soon death will be "swallowed up forever and tears wiped from all faces" (Isaiah 25:8). And we have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28, 29. My family and I hope that your family feel the comfort and peace of these words. “ To the Family and Feiends of Mr. McCormick: May "the God of all comfort" continue to strengthen you all as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29! God's Word even assures us of a future when "death will be no more." (Revelation 21:3-5). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Consider Joshua 23:14 and John 17:3).
