“ I know like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our loving Heavenly Father we can find resurrection (John 5:25 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering. (Revelation 21:3,4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus, assures us all eternal life (John 17:3) For more Bible based comfort on how to cope with the death of a loved one visit :<http://www.jw.org/en/publications/books/?contentLanguageFilter=en&pubFilter=t-35&sortBy=1>

“ To the Family:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. May you be comforted by God's loving provision to resurrect our loved ones..."He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9).
Jesus confirmed his role in raising up our loved ones when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). As you look ahead, keep in mind..."God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1). He cares for you!

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Robert Dean Boston, Jr. In the days ahead, may you draw comfort from our Heavenly Father (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He is aware of the pain you are experiencing with the loss of Robert. He gives us the hope of welcoming our departed ones back with his words at John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. What a wonderful prospect for future blessings our Creator holds out for us. I hope his words and the love and support of family and friends will help you through this difficult time.
