

Robert "Magic " Freeman

July 24, 1956 - November 19, 2020

Robert "Magic" Freeman bka Rabbit, was born July 24, 1956 in Tucker, GA to the late James Nelson Earl Freeman and Frances Davis Freeman. He was called from this life on earth by the Lord on November 19, 2020.

Robert, known to many as "The Magic Man", was always the life of the party. He lived for a good time. He graduated from Tucker High School in 1974 and went to the Marine Corps shortly after at the young age of 17.

When he returned home from the military, he made a name for himself throughout metro Atlanta night clubs as a dapper DJ known as "The Magic Man". He went on to be a successful insurance agent with American General Insurance. His ability to captivate an audience lead to him being successful in business because he was a visionary. In 1995, he and his ex-wife launched Legacy Luxury Limousines, which flourished for approximately 15 years, until its transition to corporate travel. His experience in the hospitality industry created opportunities to form close relationships with several entertainers, which inspired him to pursue interest in concert promotions.

The Magic Man was loved by many. He possessed an undeniable amount of charisma and charm. On any occasion, he was the sharpest fellow in the room. Known as “Rabbit” to his family, he was often-times the go-to person for help and advice. In his latter years, Robert maintained his strong faith in God while battling through many health issues and heartbreak, after losing most of his immediate family members. He was preceded in death by his parents and his siblings: Perry, James (Spike), Shirlene, and Deborah.

Robert leaves behind his wife, Rosalind Freeman, his sister Helen Freeman, 4 children: Temika Freeman, Devekia Wells, Adrian Freeman, and India Freeman; and 3 stepchildren: Reginald Johnson Atiba Johnson and Sade Ramsey; 14 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and cousins who love him dearly and will hold the memory of him forever in their hearts.

“ I am on mechanic who Magic trusted working on both he and his wife's car. I remember him coming over and always talking about how happy he was being married. She was his everything. I admired his love for her and his love for his work. We would hang out at a mural friends house as well. He will be deeply missed by Atlanta. An icon in his own right. Rest well my friend.
