**Obituary for Robert Freeman**

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Robert Freeman, a lifelong resident of Atlanta, Georgia, who left this world on Wednesday, January 29th, 2025. Born and raised in Atlanta, Robert dedicated his life to shaping the architectural landscape of this vibrant city as a self-employed architect. His legacy is etched into the countless structures that bear his visionary touch and stand as a testament to his talent and passion.

Robert's career was defined by his creativity and commitment to his craft, and he was admired by colleagues and clients alike for his innovative designs and attention to detail. More than just a skilled architect, Robert was a beloved member of the community, always willing to lend a helping hand or share a warm smile.

Family, friends, and all whose lives were touched by Robert are invited to pay their respects. Visitation will be held at Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, Rainbow Park Baptist Church, on Thursday, February 20th, 2025, from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm. The funeral service will take place at our Scottdale Location Friday, February 21st, 2025, from 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm, providing an opportunity to honor and remember Robert's remarkable life and enduring impact.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory—South Dekalb. In lieu of flowers, the family encourages donations to be made in Robert's name to a charity of your choice, celebrating his generous spirit and dedication to making the world a brighter place.

Robert Freeman will be deeply missed but fondly remembered by all who knew him. His legacy lives on in the city he loved and the family and friends who hold him dear in their hearts.
