

Robert Derrick Hogan

March 1, 1951 - September 11, 2024

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Robert Derrick Hogan, a beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and friend to many. Born on March 1, 1951, in Newark, New Jersey, Derrick touched countless lives with his wisdom, kindness, and unwavering dedication to those he loved.

Derrick is survived by his former wife Maureen Hogan and their three children, Adam, Alex, and Amber and his cherished grandchildren Arriyana, Aya, Aubrey, Miles, and Abigail, along with his great-grandson, Xavier. They will forever hold his memory close to their hearts. He was the eldest of seven to the late Ursulia Hogan and Frederick Hogan and his siblings—Telia, the late Dona, Fredricka, Lavette, Randall, and Wayne—will always treasure the wisdom, love, and guidance he shared with them.

Derrick was more than just a father to his own children; he became a father figure to many of his children's friends, extending his warmth, guidance, and knowledge to everyone who was fortunate enough to know him. His passion for learning and sharing never waned, and he had a rare gift for uplifting those around him. His thoughtful words and wise counsel left an indelible mark on all who crossed his path.

After working for Bell Atlantic for 17 years in various roles, including Switch

Technician and Lineman, Derrick's thirst for knowledge led him to earn a Bachelor of Science from St. Peter's College in just three years, all while balancing his career and family life. In 1989, Derrick and his family moved to Austell, Georgia, where his commitment to community deepened. He served as Vice Mayor of Clarkston, passionately dedicating his efforts to improving the lives of others and ensuring the well-being of his community.

Derrick's love for his family was boundless, and his legacy of kindness, wisdom, and service will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. His laughter, warmth, and strength were a source of light, and he will be deeply missed.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that Derrick's memory be honored by continuing his tradition of kindness and service to others.

Although he is no longer with us, his spirit will forever remain in the hearts of those he touched. Robert Derrick Hogan will never be forgotten.

Final services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, 4347 Flat Shoals Parkway, Decatur, GA 30034

Tribute Wall

TB

“ My wonderful cousin, words are never enough to express genuine gratitude and love for you. I remember when I decided to relocate my family to Georgia; you were assisting me with every step of the relocation - I love you, Alex, Adam and Amber for all your visits and assistance. I remember speaking with you, Adam and Alex, via FaceTime, a little while back - we laughed - there was such joy in your voice! You are and always will be in my prayers - Love ya' Buttons

Taylor T Barrett - September 17, 2024 at 02:26 PM

PS

Robert was a wonderful compassionate friend of mine. He would accompany me and my grandchildren to events he was a great father figure for them since their father my son had died. He would give me great advice, he came over and helped me paint. He is a part of my heart and always will be with me always. I love you Robert I will never stop.

Phyllis Smith - December 15, 2024 at 09:55 PM

PS

Robert I will miss you, until we meet again. Rest in the arms of Jesus, you fought a galant fight. God has taken over your struggle, now rest.

Phyllis Smith - December 15, 2024 at 10:02 PM