“ Wow, I am sadden and happy at the same time. My pastor preaches that we are to make ourselves ready to meet the Lord in person. However, when that day arrives, it leaves a void where your presence use to exist.It tough to not be selfish. Now, there is one less person to put a smile on our face. At least I had one last laugh with you, Godspeed Robert.

“ I am so distressed to hear the news that Robert has left us far too early. I was fortunate to work with Robert for over 25 years. In all that time, I never saw him with anything but a laugh and a smile on his face. He truly enjoyed his life. He always had a nice comment to make about work, sports (especially basketball) and things in general and really showed an interest in those around him. He has left a positive mark on all who knew him; that is indeed an accomplishment and a tribute to a fine man. Dave Huffman

“ It was 1982 when I met Robert. He was one of the most upbeat and positive people in my life. Robert was not just dedicated to the company he worked for but once you knew him he was a friend for life. He had a positive influence on many others with his laugh and quick wit. Robert held true to family values but always embraced life. I truly believe there are special people we encounter in our lives that are here to influence us to be better people. Robert did that and more. I will forever miss him laughing and then saying Whats up Doc? Rest peacefully my friend, you are missed.

“ I have known Robert Hunter (nicknames - OD and T-Rex) my entire career at L-3, which spans a little of 22 years. Robert was like a big brother to me. He was always there whenever I needed him. I will miss our discussions about what he should be eating and our lively debates about basketball and who would win the NBA Championship. Most of all, I will miss his big, bright, infectious smile and laugh that greeted me each and every time I saw him regardless of what he may have been going through that day. No more pain, rest in peace Robert. My condolences go out to the Hunter family. Charlene & Oscar
