“ Remembering my friend Robert (pee-shooter) Jackson back in the years of high school we was in the same homeroom after a weekend of football he would come in talking about his game love to talk about his game and that he really had. He will be missed 😞 but he's in GOD'S hand now. May the family be at peace because he's in good hands 🙌

“ "My condolences to Robert's family. He was my neighbor and a friend. Always looked out for me; very thoughtful just a caring and a trustworthy person. He will be truly missed. When I look at garden I will think of him. When I look in the back parking lot, I will think of him and Charm, his dog as he threw the ball to her. He has gone to a better place, and knowing to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord. The memories will always be in my heart"
