“ I had the pleasure of meeting and being instructed by Robert during some Microsoft word and excel classes that he was teaching. Though I didn't him long, he was patient and kind with everyone and took his time to teach and make sure that we all understood what to do. Simply a great person to be around. my deepest condolences to the family.

“ Mr. Jones was one of the best IT instructors I've ever had. He was so patient and kind and made everything make sense. As a new employee, I jumped into taking several of his classes to catch up on my skills in Excel, using charts, and any other questions I had. I always felt so much more empowered when I completed his classes. He was such a wonderful person; and a phenomenal instructor, I will miss him dearly! My deepest condolences to his family and friends.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your loved one.

Rob was an excellent instructor! I was fortunate to attend several work classes taught by him on various topics, including Excel. His knowledge of the Microsoft Office suite was impressive, as was his patience, as he taught a class of eager employees whether in person or virtually. He shared light humor which kept us entertained, even when learning a challenging topic. His classes helped strengthen my technical skills and I still refer to my notes, resources he shared, and have been able to teach others what he taught me.

I am honored to have spent time in his presence and wish his family, friends, and colleagues strength during this difficult time.

Rob will be remembered fondly and often.

“ My condolences

I knew him as an IT class instructor for Gwinnett County. I really enjoyed and learned from him during his classes. Had a few classes with him as the presenter including a virtual class. He would answer any question and help you save time on the computer.

I have worked with Rob for 2 years and most of that time was sitting very close to him as we worked in the same department. I miss seeing his big grin every time he passed by my cube or in our many conversations.

It was obvious how much he cherished his time with his whole family and how deep his love was for each member. He enjoyed having the family over for Thanksgiving and spending time with you all. He was especially proud to show us photos of his oldest son in his military uniform, and he beamed when he talked about him. He enjoyed spending his weekends planned around his youngest son, trying to provide the best, funnest, or most rewarding experiences that he could. He was so happy to build that phenomenal theatre room and it made him so proud and happy to see his son enjoy it so much. You all meant so much to him.

I will miss seeing his smiling face every day at work, but I feel that his presence and spirit will continue to be with us.
