“ I am sadden by this news I received today of your passing. Sending sincere condolences to the Lawes family. He always spoke highly of his wife and family. In fact, he shared his stories and wisdom. Mr. Lawes, was more than a teacher. He went beyond the books. Mr. Lawes gave time and was always thinking of others and had a generous spirit. My son Chance Boyd and I , along with so many others will cherish our fond memories. Thanks for sharing him with all of us. Blessings to you all during this time.

Robert Lawes your presence in my life was joyous, rewarding and inspiring. I will miss you my friend. I am so grateful for knowing someone of your character who genuinely loved making a difference in lives. The students of Lakeside will forever cherish the memorable moments spent listening to words of wisdom. I miss you, Friend! I've cried every day as I now am. I will miss your presence amongst those you've left behind, but you will be remembered in my heart. Sleep eternally, Friend...
