“ I was surprised to hear of Roberts Passing we lived in the same neighborhood off Chapel Rd played and joked around North ave - Maddox Park those were good days and care free days not like today what I remember the most about Robert was he always was smiling I can't remember if we had seen each other since . Looking at his picture he never stop smiling. I hope his family smiles too because it not only makes you feel better it helps others feel better Robert was a very nice person because he was, it made others around him be the same I know it did me He will be missed I pray for his family hope you all stay strong God bless you One of the boys Michael Echols ake; Big Wine Bottle
