“ Mary and family. My sincere condolences to you and your family. May you treasure the good times and keep him in your memory. Always talk about him and all the things you all did together. While this will not be an easy time throughout the days, months and year's to come, please know that he will always be looking over your shoulder and protecting you as an angel would do their guardian. He is in a peaceful place. With warm regards, Valentina Hickey
