“ You have my condolences. May "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials", be with you during your time of grief and afterward. (2 Cor.1:3, 4) He is the Most High God over all the earth. (Psalm 83:18) Throw your anxieties on Him because He cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7) I hope this brings you peace.

“ May Jehovah grant you all comfort as you keep in mind that he made a provision to resurrect ones who fall asleep in death (John 3:16). He empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones in the past, giving us a foregleam of what he will do on a global scale in the future. Consider his promise: "Your dead will live.... They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). He is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Isaiah 55:11).

“ Dear Family,
When under trial Jesus was able to endure because of the joyful hope he had in Jehovah God's promises. (Hebrews, 12:2, Psalm 83:18)
May you all find the same comfort in this time of great sorrow by following Jesus' example of "coming to know the only true God" (John 17:3). It is that knowledge that will comfort you, and build your hope so that you will be able to endure the death of your loved one.

With sincere condolences,

“ My sincere condolences to the Family. We can put full trust in what the Bible says about the dead living again because God is the one who gave life to all living creatures so he certainly is capable of restoring life to someone who has died (Acts 17:24,25).

“ My condolences in the loss of your loved one. May you be comforted by the words found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also the words at Isaiah 33:24 which says: "I am sick". The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error. May these scriptures bring comfort and calmness of heart to you at this time of bereavement.
