“ My deepest condolences to the Wilburn Family. Though many years have passed since I last saw the family, I will always hold in fond memories the times/laughter we shared together at WestEnd C.O.C. I remember the love in Robert's voice when he called Vivian's name. He would always say, "Viv" (smile). Also his children's Vett and Brea with pride and love. Robert had the sweetest disposition: Great smile and kindness. I was sorry to hear of his illness. Rest now, Robert, in Paradise until all the saints meet in the great Resurrection. Vivian, Yavette, and Briana, I love you guys. Sister Leatherwood -Suncoast C.O.C

“ It's going to be hard trying to maneuver this side of life without you. We shared so many good times and good things in life together. I appreciated you always trying to do your best for us. We knew you loved us and wanted nothing but the best for us. Even in your sickness you kept your sense of humor to make us laugh and to be happy. The prayers you lead at night before we went to bed. You always thanked God for having your right mind. God saw your struggle and we did too. Now you can rest in his Bossom from this life. Thank you for obeying the gospel to be a child of God. We will miss you but forever you will be in our hearts. There will be plenty of memories shared about you everyday. Love you, my love, my brother in Christ. And as you would always say My wife. Vivian 😊

“ I remember being a little girl and running to jump on the top of your shoes to dance with you when you get home from work. Before you got too sick. You stayed up with me morning and night to see Taylor being born. You never missed a milestone. You even celebrated my birthday with me before you passed. You really tried dad. Thank you for teaching us unconditional love and forgiveness. Thank you for being a good grandpa to Taylor. Taylor is really going to miss you 😞. I love you daddy
