“ Red is for Roberta

*It takes time to figure out how you'll be at the peak of your life.
But my granny had that answer after her years of struggle and strife.
She mustered seven kids and took care of each of them.
If one beat the other she pull a belt on all her children*

*She didn't tolerate anything and she spoke her mind
I don't know how many times she commented on my hair whether it be unflattering or fine.
Granny had so much spirit and personality
She could light up a room
She'd Joan on any and everybody who had any connection to her womb*

*She asserted her presence and demanded respect
It was time for pickles or sweets when your heard "Tetooo" when she awoke from her naps Heart, charisma, love, passion all part of the color that is synonymous with her name
Right in her actions to show her love
Everlasting effects on those she's touched Divine purpose in each of our lives*

*Red was more than just an adjective to myself and all of you
Red was for the love she poured into us
Red was the for the lessons she instilled in us
Red was for the smiles she put on our mouths
Red was for everything but a color on a paint pallet*

Red was for Roberta
