

Roberto Simona

April 9, 1935 - August 6, 2023

Roberto Simona, “Bobby,” was surrounded by his family at home as he passed into eternity on August 5, 2023.

Bobby was born to the late Dionisia Simona on April 9, 1935, in Puerto Rico. He was raised in the Republic of Panama before moving to the United States. After serving in the Army, he retired and continued his career as a policeman and firefighter, and later became a business owner at Bob’s Shoe Repair. Weightlifting was a passion for Bobby, who was recognized for his success in the sport when he was awarded 4th place in the World Olympics in Rome, Italy.

In 1988, Bobby met the love of his life and lifelong companion, Ollie Mae Davis Simona. Two families were joined together when Bobby and Ollie Mae married in Staten Island, New York, in 1999. They later retired to Grayson, Georgia, in 2015.

Bobby was preceded in his death by his children, Danixa Collins, Caleb

Simona-Wilder, and Corey Simona-Wilder; his brother, Esteban James Isaac Sr.; and his grandson, Gregorio III (Pres).

Those surviving Bobby include his cherished wife, Ollie Mae Davis Simona; his beloved children: Kretika Hamilton of Loganville, Georgia; Donald Hamilton of Grayson, Georgia; Steven (Lacey) Davis of Syracuse, New York; Roberto (Elizabeth) Simona of Long Island, New York;
and Diony Simona of New Jersey. Bobby treasured his grandchildren:
Christina Simona,
Roberto Simona Jr., Gabrielle Fogg, Benjamin Fogg, Nazir Hamilton, Empress
Virola, Gregorio
IV (Prince) Virola, Jaziah Green, Rae-Lynn Hamilton, Hyun-jae Davis, Steven Jr., Jasmine
Wilder, Corey Wilder, and Caleb Wilder, and his one great-grandchild, Malachi Turner. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, sister- and brother-in-laws, relatives, and friends will be left to cherish his memories.
