“ I am so sorry you didn't receive the help you needed financially, medically, physically, mentally & emotionally. You endured so much pain, for so many years, but you put up a good fight just the same, until you just couldn't fight anymore! I wish you would have come home, as I often begged you to, but you just wouldn't give in to me! Then I would get angry with you and get over it all at the same time lol. Anyway, You were loved by your family! And you will be missed by us as well.
Rest well cousin! I love you!
