“ My heart aches with the loss of my 1st cousin . I will forever remember our cherished conversations in connecting our family history and the times you, family and I spent together in ATL at your home and sporting events. Our deep conversations regarding family past, current and future. You were the closest connection to my fathers side of the family. Our re-connecting in our adult years showed it's never to late for family to come together. Our families loved each other unconditionally and always there for each other. Thank you for adding a ray of sunshine in my life; for sharing your family with me with unconditional acceptance; for loving and accepting my husband and for never judging my perceptions of family dynamic's. I won't say good-bye but only so long....until we see each other again with my (your mother) and my father.

So sorry my siblings and other family members didn't get to experience you and your families kindness and unconditional love as Jerome and I did.

So much love for you.....Today, Tomorrow, and Beyond"....your legacy is family!!!!
