Wanda and Phyllis you have my deepest sympathy at this time! Having grown up since childhood as neighbors the Wright family was very close and Rodney was even closer to me as we played together as young kids. He will always be a part of my great memories in life as well the entire Wright family! I am available for you if there is anything you both need! Your neighborhood friend, Calvin Casey

“ God Bless the Wright family during your time of bereavement I offer my condolences and deepest sympathy to you all and may God heal your hearts. The steps of a good man is honored by God and I've always known Rodney to be a good man. To his wife and my niece Rodrica remember the good moments you had with him and hold them sacred and remember Revelations 21:4 Earth have no sorrow that heaven can not heal. God Bless You !!!🕊️🙏

“Mr. Rodney L. Wright my childhood friend from North Memphis. A blessing to have grown up with you. All the days and nights we spend together talking about anything under the sun. All the laughs, games, and sports we shared together. Even served together at Ft Stewart, GA in 1977. Rodney was always the level headed one in the group. God has gained another Outfielder. HOLLYWOOD HAWKS forever my brother.

To the family my condolences are with you. Pray your family find strength in this time of grieving. Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Gone but not forgotten. Rest well Rodney. Love you.

I knew Chief Wright in New Orleans and in the Recruiting Office. He was a top notch Coast Guardsman and a fine human being. He will be sorely missed.

May the pain in your heart become a bit duller each day. May your love fill the void and let all the great experiences make your tomorrow's special. Rodney will always hold the same spot in your hearts, your family, and your love. My prayers are for you all. Anna Morton, sister of Pearl K-Ross
