“ Our hearts go out to Brenda and the rest of the Hannans family. Roland, Brenda and their children could not have been better neighbors and friends. Roland's kindness and positive attitude and unshakable faith throughout his illness is an inspiration to all of us. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Hannans family during this difficult time.

I just learned of Mr. Hannans' death when I asked about him at Costco. He was a deeply caring individual who connected with people and ministered to their spiritual needs. I offer my deepest sympathy to his family and will pray for the repose of his soul and for peace for those who loved him. He touched me and my loved ones with his sense of humor and prayers.
